HOOK

 Start the conversation by asking...

Every generation gets a "label" (i.e., Gen X, Millennials) because there are distinct experiences that set them apart from other generations.

ENGAGE

 Go deeper with this...

Have you ever found it hard to see eye to eye with someone of a different generation, whether in your family, extended family, or at work? What happened?

LINK

 Connect to God's truth by sharing...

- To reach the next generation, we need to look at how we live, speak, and act.
- To reflect Jesus to young people:
- We need to be nonjudgmental, humble, and live in a way that upholds God's Word.
- We need to speak with authority from God's Word, speak the truth in love, and declare Jesus to those around us.
- And we need to act in love, to be self-reflective, and to be sure our actions help to build God's Kingdom.
- Jesus modeled all these first, and He will give you His strength to fulfill them.

PAUSE

 Pick a question and pray together...

Discuss Together (pick one)

- How important is it to reach the next generation? What is at stake?
- Which of the mentioned traits do you have a hard time with? How can you grow in these?

Pray Together (pick one)

- Pray that your life will reflect Jesus to the next generation.
- Pray for the young people to have personal relationships with Jesus.
