HOOK

 Start the conversation by saying...

85 countries all over the world still enforce mandatory military service so that when conflict hits, they are ready for the battle.

ENGAGE

 Go deeper with this...

Are you the type to prepare for the unexpected beforehand? Or do you take it as it comes?

LINK

 Connect to God's truth by sharing...

- To be ready for the battles we face, we need to know the right perspective, position, and practices to take in battle.
- The right perspective is knowing that the battle is spiritual. This means that we are not fighting other people, no matter how much they seem like the enemy.
- The right position to take is believing we are at an advantage because we are in Christ, and He is supreme over all spiritual and physical forces.
- The right practices are getting God involved in our lives as we pray, meditate, proclaim, and fellowship.

PAUSE

 Pick a question and pray together...

Discuss Together (pick one)

- What does God's supremacy mean for you in the way you live life today?
- Are there any wrong perspectives, positions, or practices that you need to change?

Pray Together (pick one)

- Pray to be prepared so that you will have the right perspective, position, and practices when there is a spiritual attack.
- Pray for the daily renewing of your mind to think the way God thinks rather than how the world thinks.

For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.
