For this is what the high and exalted One says—he who lives forever, whose name is holy: “I live in a high and holy place, but also with the one who is contrite and lowly in spirit . . .”

— Isaiah 57:15 (NIV)

HOOK

 Start the conversation by saying...

In 5 seconds, name 3 things that you set apart for yourself, no matter what.

ENGAGE

 Go deeper with this...

How would you feel if you knew that other people had access or were using these things that you've set apart for yourself?

LINK

 Connect to God's truth by sharing...

- God wants to draw us near to Him, but there is something that sets Him apart. He is perfectly holy.
- Because we are sinful people, we were separated from God's holiness.
- Sin is the opposite of God's holiness, and it cannot stand in the presence of God. It brings on feelings of guilt and shame, which is not what God wants for you.
- Because sin came into the world and separated us from our holy God, it was necessary to bring us back to Him through a sacrifice.
- At first, it was animal sacrifices that atoned for people's sin; but now it is only because of Jesus that we can be with God today.

PAUSE

Pick a question and pray together...

Discuss Together (pick one)

- How have you experienced the holiness of God?
- Did you ever feel like your sin separated you from God?
- Do you understand why Jesus' sacrifice on the cross bridged the gap between God and man?

Pray Together (pick one)

- Pray for a deep and transformational experience of the holiness of God every day.
- Pray to become more and more holy as God is holy.

... for all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God ...

— Romans 3:23 (NIV)

... as far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us.

— Psalm 103:12 (NIV)
