Then Jesus came to them and said,
“All authority in heaven and on earth
has been given to me.”

— Matthew 28:18 (NIV)

HOOK

 Start the conversation by saying...

People share things on social media because they want a specific message to spread.

ENGAGE

 Go deeper with this...

What is one message you took time to share with others? How did it make an impact on you?

LINK

 Connect to God's truth by sharing...

- After the resurrection, Jesus' authority was confirmed.
- He invites us to partner with Him in His purpose: The Great Commission.
- Being a disciple is a lifestyle, not just a title. It means we strive to align our will with God's. It means we submit our lives and purposes to Him.
- Jesus grants us His authority to make disciples. Even if we are imperfect, He allows us to join Him.
- Because of His great love for all, the call to make disciples extends to all nations.
- In Christ, we are given the privilege and blessing to join Him in His purpose of making His name known to all the world.
- Even better, He promises He will always be with us.

PAUSE

 Pick a question and pray together...

Discuss Together (pick one)

- Are you a disciple of Christ? How do you pray God's will over your life?
- What comfort zones do you currently enjoy that you feel God is asking you to move out of?
- Ask God for one person's name, and ask Him how you can introduce Jesus and what He did for them this week.

Pray Together (pick one)

- Pray to realise and experience the authority God gives you to make His name known.
- Pray for the Holy Spirit's strength and guidance to talk to different people about Jesus, even out of your comfort zone.
