

BLESSED HOPE

02 NOVEMBER 2025

¹²It teaches us to say “No” to
ungodliness and worldly passions,
and to live self-controlled, upright
and godly lives in this present age, ¹³while we wait for the blessed
hope . . .

Key Points

Connect to God's truth by sharing...

- Our hope in Jesus doesn't just point to the future—it shapes how we live today.
- Hope teaches us to say “No.” God's grace trains us to turn away from sin and live differently—set apart and devoted to Him.
- Hope calls us to live godly lives now. As we wait for Jesus to return, our hope is shown through lives marked by self-control, integrity, and love.
- Hope looks forward to His glory. Our hope is what sustains us as we wait for the fulfillment of our faith—when Jesus returns to make all things right. That promise keeps us steady and faithful in the present.
- Because we have this blessed hope, we can live with purpose, joy, and righteousness—even in hard times.

- What’s something in your life right now that you might need to say “no” to, as you follow God more closely?
- Who is someone you know who shows a hopeful and godly character? What stands out to you about their example?
- In your own life, what do you think it means to live in a way that honors God—especially in how you treat people, deal with stress, or use your time?
