Key Points

Connect to God's truth by sharing...

- As we step into the new year, let's make Christlikeness our goal. Growing to be more like Christ looks like this:
- We move beyond facts to knowing Jesus personally. We can know about Jesus without truly knowing Him. Christlikeness starts with a real relationship—walking with Him and encountering Him personally.
- We prioritize time with Jesus. Every relationship grows through time together. As we pray and meditate on God's Word, we learn to hear His voice and delight in His presence.
- We obey His Word by faith. Knowing Jesus leads to obedience. As we trust Him, the Holy Spirit gives us the strength to follow His ways—even when it's hard or uncomfortable.
- Ultimately, our greatest prize isn't achievement or success—it's knowing Christ, who paid the greatest price for us.

Discuss Together (pick at least one)

- What helps you spend time with Jesus—and what makes it challenging?
- In what ways have you experienced Jesus as real and personal in your life this year?
- Is there one area where Jesus may be inviting you to trust and obey Him more this coming year?
- How would your goals look different if becoming more like Jesus becomes your greatest prize and top priority?
