

REFLECTING THE FATHER'S LOVE

21 JUNE 2026

⁹“Which of you, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone? ¹⁰Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake? ¹¹If you, then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good gifts to those who ask him!”

— Matthew 7:9-11 (NIV)

Who has helped guide or shape your life? What did you learn from them?

Key Points

Connect to God's truth by sharing...

- No human father is perfect, but they point us to our perfect Heavenly Father.
- Fathers provide. Good fathers desire to give good gifts to their children. As our perfect Father, God lovingly provides for all our needs. Everything we have is from Him.
- Fathers discipline. Loving discipline helps us grow and mature. Our parents' correction reflects how God disciplines us because He desires what's best for us.
- Fathers have compassion. The love and kindness we experience from earthly fathers remind us that God knows our weaknesses and cares for us deeply. He is patient, understanding, and full of mercy toward His children.
- God's love is deeper than any human's. His desire is to bring His children back into His family. As part of His family, we can extend that same love to our families, friends, and communities.

Discuss Together (pick at least one)

- How have you experienced God's provision, discipline, or compassion in your life recently?
- What is one way you can reflect God's fatherly love to someone this week?
- Tell about one relationship you have that helps you understand God's love more.
- How has God taught you to love differently than what you experienced growing up?

PROCLAIM

Declare this truth based on your identity in Christ

Key Truth

In Christ, I am a beloved child of God, and I can reflect my Father's love to others.

Pray Together (pick at least one)

- Thank God for His faithful love and for the fathers, father figures, and spiritual fathers He has placed in our lives.
- Ask Him to help us know Him more as our perfect Heavenly Father.
- Pray that we would reflect His provision, compassion, and love to the people around us.
- Pray for each other's prayer requests.
