

DRAW NEAR

06 SEPTEMBER 2026

¹¹Day after day every priest stands and performs his religious duties; again and again he offers the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. ¹²But when this priest had offered for all time one sacrifice for sins, he sat down at the right hand of God, ¹³and since that time he waits for his enemies to be made his footstool. ¹⁴For by one sacrifice he has made perfect forever those who are being made holy.

— Hebrews 10:11-14 (NIV)

What makes you feel welcome when you come into someone's home? What might make you feel like you shouldn't come in?

Key Points

Connect to God's truth by sharing...

- Because Jesus offered Himself once for all, the way to God is open to us. We don't have to earn our way into God's presence—we can draw near because of what Jesus has already done.
- Draw near to God with confidence. Because of Jesus' blood, we can confidently enter God's presence. Our confidence comes from what Jesus did, not what we can do.
- Draw near to God with a sincere heart. Jesus cleanses us from a guilty conscience, so we can come to God honestly—without pretending, hiding, or allowing our failures to keep us away.
- Draw near to God with full assurance of faith. We can trust that Jesus' sacrifice is enough. His finished work gives us full assurance as we draw near to God and place our faith in Him.
- Because Jesus has made the way for us, we can draw near to God each day with confidence, sincerity, and faith.

Discuss Together (pick at least one)

- Do you ever feel you need to get yourself “right” before coming to God? What does that look like for you?
- What can make it difficult for you to come honestly to God when you have messed up or have done something wrong?
- If you were completely confident that God welcomes you because of Jesus, what is one thing you would talk to Him about today?
- Jesus has made a way for us to draw near to God. What might change in your everyday life if you lived with that confidence?

DRAW NEAR

06 SEPTEMBER 2026

¹⁹Therefore, brothers and sisters, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, ²⁰by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, his body, ²¹and since we have a great priest over the house of God, ²²let us draw near to God with a sincere heart and with the full assurance that faith brings, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water.

— Hebrews 10:19–22 (NIV)
