

OF GREATER VALUE

11 OCTOBER 2026

²³By faith Moses' parents hid him for three months after he was born, because they saw he was no ordinary child, and they were not afraid of the king's edict. ²⁴By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be known as the son of Pharaoh's daughter. ²⁵He chose to be mistreated along with the people of God rather than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin.

— Hebrews 11:23–25 (NIV)

Think of something you really value. What are you willing to give up for it?

Key Points

Connect to God's truth by sharing...

- Choosing to follow God has always come at a cost, and it still does. Moses and the Israelites show us what faith looks like when the world offers something easier.
- Faith chooses God over the world. Moses refused the privileges of Pharaoh's house, choosing hardship with God's people over the temporary pleasures of Egypt because he valued God's reward more.
- Faith trusts God for victory. By faith, the Israelites crossed the Red Sea and saw Jericho's walls fall. Faith trusts God to bring victory in ways we could never do on our own.
- Faith receives forgiveness and salvation. At the Passover and through Rahab's story, we see God rescuing those who trusted Him. Through faith, we receive God's forgiveness, salvation and new life.
- Faith costs something, but in Christ we receive something far greater: a new identity, a new life, and a lasting reward.

Discuss Together (pick at least one)

- Share a time when you had to choose between what felt easier and what you knew was right. What helped you make that choice?
- What makes it hard to keep choosing God when the world offers comfort, status, or security?
- Where in your life right now do you sense God asking you to trust Him beyond what you can see or control?
- Moses chose God's people over the privileges of Egypt. What might following God require you to give up or put aside in your life?

PROCLAIM

Declare this truth based on your identity in Christ

Key Truth

In Christ, I can choose God over the world and trust Him even when faith is costly.

Pray Together (pick at least one)

- Thank God that belonging to Him is worth more than anything this world can offer.
- Ask Him for courage to keep choosing Him when fear or temptation feels strong.
- Pray that your heart would value Jesus more than temporary comfort or success.
- Pray for each other's prayer requests.

OF GREATER VALUE

11 OCTOBER 2026

²⁶He regarded disgrace for the sake of Christ as of greater value than the treasures of Egypt, because he was looking ahead to his reward. ²⁷By faith he left Egypt, not fearing the king's anger; he persevered because he saw him who is invisible.
